Join us on a beautiful 1,000 acre ranch in Tomales for a 2-day experiential leadership program designed to inspire curiosity and deliver practical tools with the assistance of collaborative human and equine coaches.

You will:

- Identify your leadership challenge
- Discover your leadership style (strengths & opportunities)
- Expand your definition of “leadership”
- Shift from being stuck to taking action
- Be on horse time
- Learn to read and translate energetic cues
- Become a more confident leader

This unique, cutting edge two-day program is designed for business owners, managers, mothers, mentors, teachers, caretakers and all women who want to make a difference.

Cynthia Riggs sold her multimillion dollar business in 2004 and transitioned to the Business Diva; an educator, coach, and consultant to women in business. Her passion is supporting women to grow profitable businesses that provide quality of life doing what they love. Teaching women to nurture and own their leadership abilities is what's currently giving her goose bumps.

Alyssa Aubrey, CEGE is an expert horsewoman known nationally and internationally for the partnering of horses for transformational human learning. Her commitment is bringing horses and women together to discover relevant, effective and satisfying ways of leading both themselves and others.
